A gift that grows...

ST. CATHARINES PUBLIC LIBRARY

Since 1888, the Library has been serving the St. Catharines community. People of all ages and walks of life benefit from its services and facilities.

The Library provides:

- materials in a wide variety of formats
- programs for all ages
- access to the Internet and electronic databases
- computer training sessions
- meeting room facilities
- Visiting Library Service
- interlibrary loans and much more.

ENDOWMENT & TRUST FUND

In 1988, the Library's Centennial year, the Library Board established the Endowment and Trust Fund in order to improve library services in St. Catharines.

Endowment and Trust funds are used to:

- purchase materials for the collections
- expand programs
- purchase special furniture and equipment

HOW YOU CAN HELP

Your gift to the Endowment and Trust Fund will help sustain the collections and services to meet the changing and increasing needs of the community.

You can give:

- a gift of cash
- a gift of property
- a gift by will or codicil
- a gift of insurance by designating the Fund as your beneficiary

You may also request that your gift be used:

- to mark a special occasion
- to be a memorial
- to show appreciation

THE CHOICE IS YOURS

You may choose to direct your donation to a specific Library service or collection such as:

- Books on Tape
- Large Print Books
- DVD's
- Programs for Children, Teens, Adults or Seniors

Or you may prefer that your gift be used for purposes specified by the Board. Even the smallest contribution, in combination with others, has the power to improve Library service.

Contributions are tax deductible and receipts are provided for all donations of $10.00 or more.

Donors are recognized in the newsletter "@ your library", unless instructed otherwise.
